GET ONE BATTLESHIP EACH

Three New Vesse's Given to as Many Firms.

ONE ON THE PACIFIC COAST

Newport News Will Build Another and the Cramps the Third-No Gold Clause in the Bids-Slight Increase in Yesterday's Batch Over the Last Awards.

Remarkably close bidding on departmental plans alone and low proposals, consider-ing the financial agitation, were the features of the competition closed at the Navy Department yesterhay for the three new battle-ships, the Newport News (Va.) Com-pany, the Scotts of San Francisco, and the Cramps of Philadelphia winning one ship each from among the five bidders. The Secretary's office was crowded at noon, singury theory Action noon, among those present being: Acting Secretary McAdoo, Judge Advocate General Lendy, and his assistant, Lieut. Lauchetmer, who opened the bids; Chief Constructor Hichborn, Engineer-in-chief Meiville, and a large number of naval officers, C. B. Orcatt, president of the Newport News Com-nany: Charles H. and Edwin S. Crampany; Charles H. and Edwin S. Cramp, Henry T. Scott of San Francisco, Gen. Thomas Hyde of Bath, Me.; John Diologue, gr., of Camden, N. J.; Lewis Nixon and M. L. Moore of Elizabethpert, N. J.; Admiral Walker, ex Senator Batter of South Caro-ina, and the assistants of the company ina, and the assistants of the competing idders. After a certificate from the Washington postmaster was made at 12:20 p. m., that no mail addressed to the Secretary of the Navy remained in the postoffice at noon the following bids were opened:.

THE LIST OF BIDS.

John H. Dialogue & Sons, Camden, N. J., one battlestop, for $2,662,000.

Buth Iron Works, Bath, Me., one battleup, for $2,680,000.

William Cramp & Sons, Ship and Engine lompany, Phuadelphia, Pa., one battle-hip, for $2,650,000; two battleships or $2.050,000 each.

It was noticeable from the opening of he first hid that the prices were extremely ow and close, which led one of the leading builders to remark that there was less guessing than in fermer bidding, as people were now beginning to find out exactly how much such work cost, and besides, the adition of business compelled sharp cal-

NEWPORT NEWS THE LOWEST. It was directly apparent that the Newport News Company were the lowest bidders and that if they had offered to take two hips at the same rate they would have been entitled to them, but the Cramps alone asked for two. It had been expected that all the companies would have tried to get all three ships, and the question had been presented to the legal authorities as to whether more than two could be given to my bidder. The decision had been reached that such a thing was possible under the

At first sight the bid of the Union Iro Works would appear to exceed those of the Cramps and of John Dialogue, but a the Cramps and of John Dialogue, but a difference in favor of Pacific coast bidders has always been allowed on account of the cost of transporting materials across the continent and to offset the voyage of Atlantic bull ships nearly around the world for duty on the Pacific.

This has been fixed at 4 per cent, which for nurses of for purposes of comparison brings the San Francisco bid down to $2,598,952, or within $3,952 of the lowest bid, and considerably under that of the Cramps.

NO GOLD CLAUSE. It was removed before the bids were opened that several of them would contain the stipulation that the proposal was made only in ease the government would enter into an agreement to pay in gold, but on examination none were found to contain any such clause. All the companies pledged themselves to give bond in a seven series. equal to 15 per cent of their bid, and each equal to 15 per cent of their bid, and each bid was accompanied by certified checks which, when taken in charge by Judge Advocate General Lemiy, were found to aggregate $460,000.

In comparison with the prices secured for the battleships Kearsarge and Kentneky, which are now being built at Newport News for $2,250,000 each, the bids show a slight increase.
